

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

There's only one thing Diana Gruber loves more than learning foreign languages, and that's teaching them!

As one of the nation's foremost polyglots, she is natively- or near-natively proficient in Spanish, English, French, Italian, Portuguese, and German. What makes her most excited is sharing that talent with you, and helping you become fluent in another language.

For over twenty years, Diana has taught tens of thousands of people just like you to speak another language, using the methodology in this course as a cornerstone of her teaching – and her students' success!

As an international consultant, she travels the world leading communication, cultural awareness, and foreign language workshops, including Functionally Fluent!™ intensive language seminars across the US – perhaps in a city near you!

She is thrilled that you're using this course and methodology, and her vision is that it will be of immense value to you and everyone you communicate with.

See more of Diana on YouTube and other media.

Acknowledgements:

The author wishes to thank the teachers and thousands of students at her school who, over the past decades, have used these books and have helped improve earlier versions.

The author also wishes to acknowledge her mother, Ada Irma Torres, for having raised her speaking Spanish and for having instilled in her a love for languages and multilingualism. ¡Gracias, Mamá!